Just finished Perdido Street Station, I enjoyed it- great world building, interesting if somewhat one dimensional characters, some really cool concepts, overall a very rich experience. My question is, do the other books in the Bas Lag series continue the stories of the characters in New Crobuzon or are they different settings?

Miévill created maps of Bas-Lag for his own reference, but chose not to publish them, instead supplying only a city map of New Crobuzon for Perdido Street Station. However, Miévill was asked for a map to be published in Dragon Magazine, who wanted to turn Bas-Lag into a Dungeons and Dragons campaign setting. A keen player of D&D in his youth, Miévill acquiesced and the first canon maps of ...
