The Guest House by Erika Marks - Goodreads

The Guest House reminds us how difficult achieving any degree of honesty can be even among family members, let alone with a man or woman whose rejection would stomp on our hearts. A refreshing aspect of this novel is that Erika Marks shows passion has no respect for age, leaving its mark on teens and those getting on in years alike.

This was my first book by Erika Marks and was pleasantly surprised. Since I live in a 1920 guest cottage, in Downtown historic West Palm Beach, FL--the cover was a huge draw with an array of loveable characters. An engaging read, in a beachfront Cape setting (so romantic)—seamlessly blending generations of two families from past to present.
