Don't get a puppy from a pet store. Despite what they may tell you, most pet stores do sell puppy mill puppies. Unless the store is "puppy-friendly" by sourcing homeless pups from local animal shelters, you have to be very careful about a pet store's link to puppy mills. Don't believe promises that puppies are "home-raised" or "family-raised"

A dog's interaction with babies can have positive benefits besides furry love. Studies show that infants who grow up with pets have a much lower chance of developing allergies to dogs as they grow up. However, clueless pups—and active infants—also have the potential to hurt or even terrorize one another. When you're expecting a new baby (or ...

Is This Adorable Creature a Puppy or a Baby Bear?

Before bringing the dog into the same room as the baby, allow the dog to have some time to say hello to the new mother first. If the new mom walks in holding the baby, an excited dog may jump up to say hello. The first reaction may be to scold the dog for fear of harming the newborn. This can start the introductions off on the wrong foot.

How to Train Your Dog to Accept a New Baby

A puppy is a juvenile dog. Some puppies can weigh 1–1.5 kg (1-3 lb), while larger ones can weigh up to 7–11 kg (15-23 lb). All healthy puppies grow quickly after birth. A puppy's coat color may change as the puppy grows older, as is commonly seen in breeds such as the Yorkshire Terrier.
